

Hello Denise,

I appreciate you getting back to me and am glad to hear the board is interested in moving forward with some benches and holiday decor. My team (Jackie Chan included) and I are always pleased when we see the conversations from a show like OBIAA turn into real customer interest and (hopefully) new sales.

Regarding the holiday decor items, lead time on new orders really depends on the quantity of displays being ordered as well as when in the year they are ordered. At this point, we are looking about 4-5 weeks for new orders but as we get closer to the fall, lead times definitely increase. Your best bet is to try and finalize your order by mid August. This will ensure not only a quick turn around on production but also ensure we have sufficient materials on hand to still complete your order (we had a very busy season last year and actually sold out of Pure white and Blue rope light by mid September).

As for the benches, attached you will find some images of our Pride and Truth and Reconciliation benches. Were there other bench styles you were interested in at this time? If so, the following link will take you to the bench section of our website. Should you see anything of interest, please let me know and I will be happy to send you additional information and pricing.

Benches

Thank you again Denise for your continued interest and I look forward to working with you this year.
